

Fred Bohasu

Lead SA Hero of the month

100 most influential Young African

South Africa Man of the year 'Youth'

- Speaker
- Facilitator
- Author

Leadership, Motivation & Team Building

Fred is one of South Africa's foremost authorities on Leadership, Motivation and Team building. And he earned his credentials the best way he could, which is leading. In his high energy, FUN and dynamic programs, Fred shares the wisdom from the University of Life and over 11 years working with Corporates, Organizations & Individuals. Fred leads your team through the most powerful life principles they need to pursue their dreams and vision of the organization. And more – to achieve greatness! He challenges participants to stop living their lives trying to be like others and, instead, to let their own light shine, so that the whole organization would shine. He speak and facilitates on Team building, Leadership, Personal development, Change management and Motivation.

Some past clients

Why is Fred Bohasu relevant to you?

He is always on a look out for new methods on human development and leadership, while making sure that his sessions are FUN and life changing. No more those old boring sessions which makes participants sleep. He includes ice breakers, stories, activities etc.

When and how to use him?

He is a key note speaker and facilitator for corporates, schools, organisation and churches. He can speak during your camp, workshop, conference, meetings or other events.